

Let There Be Peace

Today I pray that the peace of God would rule in your hearts and minds. I ask the Holy Spirit to stand guard of your heart and mind so that in all things and in all ways you will experience the supernatural peace of God that passes all understanding. I know that there are many things that are causing much distress in your life, but God is still in control. If you will submit yourself to Him, He will work all things together for you good. He loves you and has an awesome plan for your life. So close your eyes, calm your spirit and release your cares over to Him. Fix your mind on the goodness of God, His might, His power and His ability. Command your soul to settle down and speak peace to all the storms that are trying to keep you from making it to other side. Let there be peace, God's peace in every area of your life today.

Peace to you,
Cinde
