

I Am here.

Sometimes we need to be reminded that God has His eyes on us and that He has not forgotten us. When we are in the middle of a trial, it is so easy to forget that God's presence is always with us. When the disciples were being tossed about in the storm, Jesus did not forsake them. When He heard their cry of distress, He came to them walking on the water. His Words are Spirit and Life, but sometimes the storms can drown out the promises that we thought we would never forget. The promise of His presence will lift us up from among the dark circumstances of life and set our feet back on the Rock of God's faithfulness. This is a short exhortation that I pray will bless you. Read it as though the Father were saying it directly to you. You are always on His mind and He is looking and longing to bless you.

Dear Child, come to Me when you're weak and heavy laden and I will give you My rest. My yoke is easy. My burden is light. You don't have to do the work alone. Call upon Me in your time of trouble and I will hear and answer you. I reward those who diligently seek Me. Call to Me and I will answer you. You are my beloved child in whom I am well pleased. It is my good pleasure to give you good things. My goodness and mercy follow you everywhere you go. I have set My love upon you because you are the apple of My Eye. Though the darkness surrounds you and trouble is near, I will never leave or forsakes you. I am your ever present help in your time of trouble. Draw near to me and I will draw near to you. I Am here waiting for you. I Am here to give you rest. I Am here to give you direction. You are not alone. I Am here.

All My Love
Abba

*Come unto Me all who are weak and heavy laden and I will give you rest.
