

It's a great day to be alive. God is so wonderful and so awesome. Sometimes I just want to SHOUT and let the world know how good He is. He is faithful and His mercy endures forever.

Whatever you may be facing today, I pray that you will know that God is faithful and will not leave or forsake you. He has promised to fulfill His covenant with you and to finish what He has started in you. He understands the pain, the heartache, the confusion and the discontent you feel at times. But His word is true and He always keeps His promises. You can trust Him to see you through and to keep His word. That's what makes everyday a GREAT DAY in the Lord! Knowing that whatever comes your way, He is there to strengthen, encourage, and guide you through the endless maze called life!

So take a deep breath and breathe in the goodness of God. Be still for just a few moments and focus on Him and His goodness. When you seek Him with all your heart you will find Him. Think about all the things that He has brought you through and you'll soon find yourself declaring His goodness and His faithfulness. He delights in those who delight in Him and He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. It's a GREAT DAY, God's Day. So sing, shout and let His praises fill you with joy today!

Blessings,
Cinde
